Henry B. Pack, proclaim the month of February as American through gifts and volunteer services which will speed greater advances in the conquest of this scourge, our nation's leading killer and disabler.

He and Mrs. Kemper can Heart Month and urge all our citizens to support the Heart Fund Campaign of the Appomattox Heart Association.

Grain Outlook

Weather difficulties in 1974 prevented growers from planting their full intentions or caused them to shift to other crops, Mr. Ford said. Feed grain harvested acreage in Virginia was approximately 689,000 acres last season. "Weather permitting, we will surpass that this season," said

LAARC Slates Camp Meadowlark

Plans have begun for the 1975 summer Camp Meadowlark, a day-camp for retarded children in the Lynchburg area. This year the camp will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, utilizing facilities at the Presbyterian Manse which adjoins the church grounds. These facilities include a swimming pool," tennis court, and a gym.

Leading it the planning for the summer's activities are the co-chairmen of the camp's board of directors, Mrs. Charles S. Layne, Jr. and Mrs. G. Grayson Wilmer, Dr. Estelle Mills is the advisor to the board. Dr. Mills is the Director of the LAARC School. Mrs. Harry H. Knowles, Jr., is a parent serving on the board. Lending their expertise in the field of recreational activities are a number of representatives from recreation departments throughout the Central Virginia area. Rounding out the board of directors are Rev. Henry Riley of Appomattox County; Reidal Reynolds, head of recreation in Campbell County; James Kyle, supervisor of special education in Campbell County; Ralph Shaner, head of recreation in Amherst County and Sherry Morris of the Lynchburg Recreation Department. Also serving on the board are Mrs. Ruby Johnson, Executive Vice President of LAARC and Treasurer of the Camp Meadowlark Board, Mrs. Diane James, Internal Vice President of LAARC, and Mrs. Judy Warren, Executive Secretary of LAARC.

During the 1975 summer session, the camp will be staffed by a director, assistant director, program aides in the areas of arts and crafts, music and physical education. Also included on the staff will be four counselors who will head up campers, grouped according to age and ability. In addition to the staff personnel, Mrs. Layne pointed out that a large number of volunteers will be needed to work with the children. "We can use anyone who is interested in doing rewarding (in more than a financially college and high students," she said.

The concept, for Meadowlark was born when LAARC, a Child Agency, sponsored many courses and day camps at Central YWCA. At that time, the number of requests has increased and facilities were moved to Christian Church for children among the poor. Glass High School for ming.

Since the number of ants and variety of have increased, a number of volunteers needed for this 1975 the camp. Mrs. Layne ous that anyone interested applying for any of the positions should call Warren at the LAARC 845-4071 or Dr. Mills LAARC School at 846-9

There's a lot of negative thinking going on today and it appears that it may not have peaked out.

Dick Bryan, Executive Director of Community Services, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, in a recent address said: "There are three tasks that need to be performed.

1. Unity - begin at home. In a town of 3000 it was discovered that 18 kids had dope in their school lockers. After an investigation, it was discovered that a widow lady was the pusher.

Get involved in solving community problems.

2. Work with the youth in your county and nation. There is a great concern about the "economic literacy of youth.

Bryan told of speaking to a class of 1003 high school seniors in Houston, Texas - he held up a dollar bill and asked "on the average last year, what was the cents profit on a dollar sales in private businesses." 775 said 75 to 99 cents. 224 said 25 to 74 cent. 4 (two boys and 2 girls) said 4 to 5 cents, and the latter group had the correct answer.

3. Crusade and speak up for the good things in America.
